Objective:

- Provide notification of election results to executive board and candidates.
- Identify roles and responsibilities to be taken by board members

Policy Statement:

- The electronic ballot count will be available for view on the website by the President, President-elect, and Nominating Committee Chair

Procedure:

- The President notifies the candidates for each position on the ballot with the results of their position prior to the first day of the annual meeting.
- The President-Elect is notified by the President when this has been completed.
- The President-Elect may contact these individuals regarding service in appointed positions on the board.
- The Nominating Committee Chair reads the results of the ballot during the business meeting at the Annual Meeting.
- The current President announces the incoming board.

Rationale:

Clarify roles and responsibilities of the President, President-elect and Nominating Committee Chair.
